Michigan State University College of Nursing seeks applications for the position of Assistant Dean for Undergraduate Programs. The Assistant Dean for Undergraduate Programs will be responsible for assuring the quality and delivery of the Bachelor of Science in Nursing (BSN) program (traditional, accelerated and RN/BSN) in the context of the strategic goals of the College of Nursing. The Assistant Dean reports to the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs and works collaboratively with the course coordinators. The Assistant Dean will be closely involved with the operations of the program, including scheduling, teaching assignments, faculty and students issues, student and faculty recruitment, program evaluation and resource management. Faculty development and quality improvement related to the undergraduate program will be the responsibility of the Assistant Dean in collaboration with the Associate Dean and the faculty. The Assistant Dean will represent the College of Nursing in University, community and professional groups and advocate for the program. This is a twelve-month appointment with effort distributed across administration, teaching and scholarship.

Position Requirements:
- PhD in Nursing or related field with a Master’s in Nursing degree;
- Unrestricted RN license without probationary status (or eligible);
- Progressive record of teaching, scholarship and academic leadership;
- Excellent communication skills;
- Ability to communicate the vision, mission and strategic goals of the College of Nursing to a variety of audiences

MSU is committed to achieving excellence through cultural diversity. The university actively encourages applications and/or nominations of women, persons of color, veterans and persons with disabilities.

Michigan State University is a land-grant university with a major focus on community engagement in the United States and throughout the world. The College of Nursing at Michigan State University is a growing community of scholars, teachers and practitioners with a full array of academic programs at the undergraduate, master’s, and PhD levels. There are excellent academic and student support operations and an outstanding Center for Nursing Research that provides support in all aspects of research and scholarly roles. The College is located in mid-Michigan in East Lansing on the Michigan State University campus. The East Lansing community offers a high quality of life and is close to recreational areas, sporting events and artistic performances and exhibits and a vibrant university life.

To apply please access the University Human Resources website at www.jobs.msu.edu. Address letter of interest, curriculum vitae and three references to: College of Nursing Dean’s Office

Salary and Rank commensurate with experience.

Review of applications will begin immediately and continue until the position is filled.

For information on becoming a Spartan call (800) 605-6424, email nurse@hc.msu.edu or visit nursing.msu.edu