ASSISTANT DIRECTOR OF THE GRADUATE PROGRAM IN NURSE ANESTHESIA

Michigan State University College of Nursing is seeking an outstanding leader for the position of Assistant Director of the Graduate Program in Nurse Anesthesia. The Assistant Director will assist with the overall planning, organization, evaluation and assuring compliance with standards set forth by the Council on Accreditation of Nurse Anesthesia Educational Programs (COA). The Assistant Director assists the Program Director in the daily operations of the Graduate Program in Nurse Anesthesia. This is a fixed-term, twelve-month appointment with effort distributed across administration, teaching and scholarship.

Responsibilities will include major didactic preparation and instruction and development of collaborative clinical experiences with health system partners; maintain oversight of the integrity of the program; assist the Program Director in student admission processes, assist the Program Director in coordinating the clinical program of the nurse anesthesia students; evaluate student progress; contribute to an environment that encourages knowledge of, respect for, and development of skills to engage with those of other cultures or backgrounds; remain competent and current through self-directed professional development.

Position Requirements:

- Doctorate in Nursing or related field (PhD, DNP DNAP) from an accredited institution of higher education;
- Unrestricted RN license without probationary status;
- Certification or Recertification as by the National Board of Certification and Recertification for Nurse Anesthetists (NBCRNA);
- Eligibility to practice as a Certified Registered Nurse Anesthetist (CRNA) in the State of Michigan;
- Three to Five years’ practice experience as a CRNA;
- Clinical and/or Didactic instruction in nurse anesthesia education preferred;
- Experience in higher education is preferred

MSU is committed to achieving excellence through cultural diversity. The university actively encourages applications and/or nominations of women, persons of color, veterans and persons with disabilities.

Michigan State University is a land-grant university with a major focus on community engagement in the United States and throughout the world. The College of Nursing at Michigan State University is a growing community of scholars, teachers and practitioners with a full array of academic programs at the undergraduate, master’s, and PhD levels. There are excellent academic and student support operations and an outstanding Center for Nursing Research that provides support in all aspects of research and scholarly roles. The College is located in mid-Michigan in East Lansing on the Michigan State University campus. The East Lansing community offers a high quality of life and is close to recreational areas, sporting events and artistic performances and exhibits and a vibrant university life.

To apply please access the University Human Resources website at www.jobs.msu.edu. Address letter of interest, curriculum vitae and three references to: College of Nursing Dean’s Office

Salary and Rank commensurate with experience.

Review of applications will begin immediately and continue until the position is filled.

For information on becoming a Spartan call (800) 605-6424, email nurse@hc.msu.edu or visit nursing.msu.edu